We send our condolences and prayers to the family of Kathleen Bentley who was buried in the church yard on Thursday 20th April. The ashes of Rosemary Mellor were interred in her parents' grave On the 4th May.

We send our best wishes to the family of Addison Price who was baptised on the 29th April during the wedding blessing for her parents Tim and Vicki, and to the family of Millie Whitfield who was baptised on the 30th April.

Revd Jeremy Stagg

On 30 July we will be saying a sad 'farewell' to Revd Jeremy Stagg as he moves into a fuller retirement. We send our thanks to him, and Lindsay, for the hard work, commitment and good humour that have characterised his ministry with us. We hope they will still pop in and keep in touch, and maybe even take the occasional service if time permits.

Bishop Mark and Archdeacon Paul will be finding another priest to help us out after the summer. Watch this space!

Annual Church Meeting

At the recent Parish meeting Janet Guest was re-appointed Church Warden and will continue administering the worship of the Church. John Airth was appointed Church Warden and will be taking responsibility of the Church building, the Church is a grade 2* listed building which is open during daylight hours and has many visitors. Ann Airth has been appointed as treasurer taking over from Peter Cadwaladr who has been treasurer for 10 years. He was thanked by Ian Gedye Chairman of the PCC. Peter Hammond was re-elected as Secretary.

Open Garden

We are grateful to Sean O'Donovan for opening his gardens a report will be in the next newsletter.
